

City of Fayetteville Application Form For Appointment to Boards, Commissions and Committees

The City Council has adopted a “policies and procedures” statement in order to:

1. Provide a broad cross-section of qualified individuals for service on the appointed bodies.
2. Provide an opportunity for participation in city affairs by interested citizens.
3. Provide a means for full City Council involvement.

Applications for appointments come from two principle sources:

1. Advertisements for open positions are run on the Fayetteville Government Channel Cox Channel 216 & AT&T Channel 99.
2. City Council members, city staff members, interested organizations and individuals who know of qualified persons often encourage them to apply for appointment.

Upon receipt of the completed application form, the City Clerk office forwards a copy of the application to the City Council Nominating Committee.

The City Council Nominating Committee then sets a time for personal interviews, conducts the interviews and makes a recommendation for each appointment. The City Council makes the final selection in open session, for most boards. Some appointments are made by the Mayor or the board members.

If you are applying for the Advertising & Promotion Commission, City Board of Health, Historic District Commission, Housing Authority Board, or Library Board, you may or may not be called for an interview by the City of Fayetteville Nominating Committee.
